

Books about Art and Artists

Chasing Vermeer by Blue Balliett

Can you solve the mystery? Crack the code in every picture

Medici Seal by Teresa Breslin

A fascinating glimpse into the world of Leonardo Da Vinci

Graphic by Cathy Brett

Can Joe literally draw his dreams into reality?

The amazing Adventures of Kavalier and Clay by Michael Chabon

World War II as seen through the eyes of two comic book writers

Framed by Frank Cottrell Boyce

The perfect crime – it's a work of art

Keeping the World Away by Margaret Foster

Follows the adventures of a 20th century painting over 100 years

Ivy by Julie Hearn

The only beautiful thing in Ivy's drab life is her glorious red hair

The Lacuna by Barbara Kingsolver

Story set around the households of famed Mexican artists Diago Rivera and Frida Kahlo

Meeting Cezanne by Michael Morpurgo

Set in 1960s Provence, Yannick destroys a drawing by an important visitor and tries to make amends

Smart by Kim Slater

Kieran is amazing at drawing but terrible at fitting in and there are dangerous secrets everywhere.

How to be both by Ali Smith

A renaissance artist of 1460s and a child of a child of the 1960s: two stories brought together.

The Guggenheim Mystery by Robin Stevens

Mystery of the stolen painting from the Guggenheim Museum in New York

Fire Colour One by Jenny Valentine

Iris's father has a priceless art collection and now her mother has declared war and wants to get her hands on it.

